Coal Customers

Read the Following Letter

COLUMBUS, O., May 27, 1912.

MR. A. H. REAMES,
HILLSBORO, OHIO.

Dear Sir:

Referring to your inquiry of May 25, 1912. Beg to advise that, commencing May 21, you were appointed our Sole Agent in Hillsboro, Ohio, on our Black Nancy coal, and that no one else in Hillsboro will receive any Black Nancy coal from us as long as you are the Agent. Anyone else offering this coal for sale to the retail trade is an impostor. No one can sell Black Nancy coal other than those buying from this Company, and as you are our exclusive Agent in Hillsboro, we will in the future confine all our shipments to you on this high grade product.

Furthermore, as this name is copyrighted, we will see that the Law protects you against any one else using this name or trying to represent that they are selling Black Nancy coal in Hillsboro.

Yours very truly,
THE W. J. HAMILTON COAL CO.,
By W. J. Hamilton,
Vice-President.
